From the best Authors, both antient and modern; with Several new Tunes, never yet before in Score; The words Engrav'd at length; and the most Select words taken out of Each Psalm, in the Old Version; regard being principally had to the Plan of the right Reverend Father in God Edmund Lord Bishop of London.

*To which is added
The Te Deum and Magnificat, with Variety of Anthems, on Several Occasions; The whole being free from Harsh airs, and musical disallowances.*

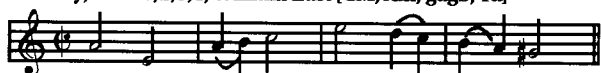

My soul shall be satisfied, Even as it were with marrow and fatness: when my mouth praiseth thee with Joyful lips. Psalm, 63. ver. 6.th

Printed by and for William East, in Waltham, near Melton, Leicestershire for the Use of his Schools; and sold by M^r. Cooke at Uppingham. Oakham and Stamford; M^r. Rogers of Stamford; M^r. Whiteman of Grantham; and by the Men that carry the Cambridge and Stamford Papers, &c.

Engraved by William Scott, of Ashley, near Market-Harborough Leicestershire who will attend any Gentlemen at their Houses (if desired,) and Engrave upon Reasonable terms.
